

THE BEAUBIEN AWARD OF DISTINCTION - NOMINATION CRITERIA

The Beaubien Award shall be conferred by unanimous vote of the Board of Directors at a duly constituted meeting upon an individual who is or was a Member of the Association, either as an individual or by virtue of corporate membership.

Criteria

- Distinguished Members shall be nominated from existing or past member-firms of the Association who, during their career, have served the Association in an exceptional way either by diligent work within the Association or by contributing to the stature of consulting engineering by their general accomplishments.
- Any Voting Representative of a Member Firm may propose a candidate by a written submission to the Board of Directors setting out in detail the particulars of the individual's career and the noteworthy contribution made by the individual.
- The Board shall require the Past Presidents/Chairs' Council to evaluate the proposal and make recommendations with respect to it.
- The Board shall consider the recommendation(s) and may, by unanimous vote, confer the Beaubien Award upon the individual(s) proposed.
- The Association will arrange an appropriate occasion for the presentation of the Award and of a suitably inscribed scroll acknowledging services rendered.
- The Association will publicize the conferring of the Beaubien Award in its publications and related publications.
- Past Presidents/Chairs of the Association, having retired from that capacity for at least five (5) years, are eligible for nomination. Past members of the ACEC Board of Directors, having retired from that capacity for at least three (3) years, are eligible for nomination.
